Mr Partridge's Performing Troupe song – All

Mr Partridge's amazing performing troupe

Mr Partridge's amazing performing troupe

We're more welcome than a bowl of hot soup

We're more exciting than a plane doing the loop the loop

Mr P's performing troupe

Mr Partridge's Amazing Performing Choir

Sings higher

Were more enticing than a real coal fire

Were more crucial than a fully pumped- up spare tyre

Mr P's Performing Choir

There are Lords who leap

Ladies who dance

Two turtledoves

Three French Hens from France

In Mr Partridge's amazing performing troupe

There are Drummers who drum

And drum just right

Four Colley birds

As black as night

In Mr Partridge's amazing performing troupe

The maids milk cows

The pipers play

And while they play

The geese all lay

There are swans that swim

And Five Gold Rings

But Smarter and wiser than

All these things is Mr P

Mr P

Our very own Mr Partridge

And his pear tree

Mr Partridges Amazing performing Band

We're the Best- Yes you guessed it in all the land

We're more gorgeous than golden sand

We're more fun than the holiday you've got planned

Mr P's performing band

All – YEAH!

SCENE 3 - THE TROUPE PACKS

The Troupe members put a large suitcase in the centre of the stage. During the song they fill it up with items of clothing and objects they want to take on holiday, such as woolly hats, hot water bottles and sunglasses. By the end of the song the stage is transformed into an airport and the sleigh is assembled, ready for Scene 4. Some Troupe members pick up the suitcase, and everyone 'boards' the sleigh.

SONG - PACKING OUR BAGS

ALL

Verse

We're packing our bags 'cos we're going away,
Packing our bags 'cos we're going to stay
With Father Christmas and his family,
We'll be getting there on Christmas Day.
We're packing our bags 'cos we're going away,
Packing our bags 'cos we're going to stay
With Father Christmas and his family,
For our Christmas holiday. (Clap three times)

Middle section

(wag right finger) This is the deal,
(wag left finger) This is the thing,
(point to oneself) We can stay there
(stretch out arms) As long as we sing;
So we all sing along,
We sing out loud and strong,
We're a choir of distinction, you see!
(wag right finger) This is the deal,
(wag left finger) This is the thing,
(point to oneself) We can stay there
(stretch out arms) As long as we sing;
So we sing them the song,
Though it's twelve verses long
'Bout the partridge in a pear tree.

MR PARTRIDGE

That's me!

ALL

Verse and ending

We're packing our bags 'cos we're going away,
Packing our bags 'cos we're going to stay
With Father Christmas and his family,
We'll be getting there on Christmas Day.
We're packing our bags 'cos we're going away,
Packing our bags 'cos we're going to stay
With Father Christmas and his family,
For our Christmas holi-, very jolly,
Christmas holiday.

(spoken energetically) We're packed and that's a
(fold arms) Fact!

ALL

Verse 1

You might think it's great being Father Christmas,
 You might think his job is second to none.

REINDEER .

Work with animals, test out toys,
 Deliver all that joy to the girls and boys,
 You might think it's all just fun, fun, fun.

ALL

FATHER CHRISTMAS

But my true love, my Missis C
 Is waiting back at home for me,
 And sadly sometimes things go wrong,
 Like now, because he's (I've) lost the song.
 He (I) can't find that merry Ho! Ho! Ho!
 When everything seems blue and No! No! No!

ALL

Verse 2

You might think it's great being Father Christmas,
 You might think his job is second to none.

REINDEER

Travel opportunities, free mince pies,
 See the world from the midnight skies,
 You might think it's all just fun, fun, fun.

ALL

FATHER CHRISTMAS

But my true love, my Missis C
 Is waiting back at home for me,
 And sadly sometimes things go wrong,
 Like now, because he's (I've) lost the song.
